

5 Beautiful Multi-Day Hiking Adventures in the United States—No Tent Required

Experience national parks and renowned trails without overnight accommodations.

Looking for a way to spend time outdoors, soak in the sun, and explore backcountry wilderness? The great outdoors is calling you. You can enjoy the beauty of the outdoors without the hassle of tenting. These five hikes around the United States offer scenic views, great trails, and no tenting required. They are all accessible by car and are perfect for a weekend getaway.

Mount Shasta Lodge, Wilderness Mountains
• Book now: Mount Shasta Lodge $279 per night
Located in the Eagle Cap Wilderness in Malheur National Forest in Eastern Oregon, the Mount Shasta Lodge is a perfect spot for a weekend getaway. The lodge is situated in a beautiful area with views of Mount Shasta. The lodge has a rustic feel and is surrounded by wilderness. It is a great place to enjoy the outdoors without the hassle of tenting.

Logans along the Appalachian Trail, Shenandoah National Park
• Book now: Logans $125 per night
The Shenandoah National Park is a beautiful area with views of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The park is home to the Appalachian Trail, which is a great place to enjoy the outdoors. The park has a rustic feel and is surrounded by wilderness. It is a great place to enjoy the outdoors without the hassle of tenting.

AFAR

Valley of the Moon, Colorado Valley
• Book now: Valley of the Moon $125 per night
The Valley of the Moon is a beautiful area with views of the Colorado Rockies. The valley is a great place to enjoy the outdoors. The valley has a rustic feel and is surrounded by wilderness. It is a great place to enjoy the outdoors without the hassle of tenting.

Phantom Ranch, Grand Canyon National Park
• Book now: Phantom Ranch $125 per night
The Phantom Ranch is a beautiful area with views of the Grand Canyon. The ranch is a great place to enjoy the outdoors. The ranch has a rustic feel and is surrounded by wilderness. It is a great place to enjoy the outdoors without the hassle of tenting.

Quartz Springs Trail, White Rock Mountain and Lake Fort Smith State Park
• Book now: Quartz Springs Trail $125 per night
The Quartz Springs Trail is a beautiful area with views of the White Rock Mountain. The trail is a great place to enjoy the outdoors. The trail has a rustic feel and is surrounded by wilderness. It is a great place to enjoy the outdoors without the hassle of tenting.

What's Travel Advice Really Done and Why You Need It
Check out our new book, 'Travel Advice: How to Travel Smarter, Not Harder'. It's a guide to the best travel tips and tricks. It's a must-read for anyone who loves to travel.